Data from the Fajardo TEP Retention Rate for the Cohort 2011 only for first and Second year, shows that the Cohort base of candidates for the whole Campus was 250 candidates from which 186 candidates were retained in the Campus (74%). In relation to the five (5) Specialties in this Cohort 2011 from the TEP, there were 14 candidates in this cohort and 12 candidates were retained in the Campus (86%). For the Elementary English Level (206) from five (5) candidates four(4) were retained in the program (80%) and in the Pre-School Early Childhood Level (243) from four(4) candidates , three(3) were retained in the program (75%)

Data from the Graduation Rate sent from Research, Assessment and Planning Office from the Central office at the UIPR indicates that the Accumulated Graduation Rates of 4th, 5th and 6th year for the Fajardo TEP according to the Specialties reflected that from the Cohort 2011, from three Specialties, 5 candidates, there were no graduates between the 4th , 5th and 6th year . this data is telling us that the candidates are taking more than six years to graduate.
