Regulations for the classification of the PPM (2006) Office of curricular Affairs of the UIPR¹

The Department of Education of Puerto Rico, (DEPR) established the Classification of the teacher Preparation Programs (PPM) as of 2014 utilizing the following formula: 80% will be accredited to the PCMAS performance results of our graduates and 20% will be awarded to the Professional Accreditation of our TEP from CAEP or other National Accreditation Agency. We were awarded an 82.6% meaning that our program will be classified as Satisfactory according to the Categories of the regulations of the PPM accreditation guidelines established by the DEPR.

The Fajardo TEP is trying to increase this classification utilizing diverse strategies such as: PCMAS mandatory review seminars, passing of the Educ. 4551 and 4551 courses, approval scores in the SIAAM Test Battery before taking the PCMAS test.
